

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

CHILDS-IRVING HYDROELECTRIC FACILITY, IRVING
SYSTEM, IRVING POWERHOUSE
Forest Service Road 708/502
Camp Verde vicinity
Yavapai County
Arizona

HAER AZ-65-G

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Jessica Maggio, photographer, January 2005

AZ-65-G-1	View of Irving Powerhouse. Looking across Fossil Creek (west-southwest)
AZ-65-G-2	View of water wheel and generator in Irving Powerhouse. Looking south-southwest
AZ-65-G-3	Wider view of interior of Irving Powerhouse. Looking south-southwest
AZ-65-G-4	Overhead view of interior of Irving Powerhouse. Looking south-southwest
AZ-65-G-5	View of governor, water wheel, generator and exciter in Irving Powerhouse. Looking southwest
AZ-65-G-6	Close-up of generator and exciter in Irving Powerhouse. Looking west
AZ-65-G-7	View of Irving Powerhouse entry, showing exciter and generator. Looking east
AZ-65-G-8	Exterior view of Irving Powerhouse. Through door on left the water wheel is visible. Water is exiting the Powerhouse on the left, under the door, into the Tailrace. Looking north

CHILDS-IRVING HYDROELECTRIC FACILITY, IRVING
HAER AZ-65-G
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

AZ-65-G-9	View looking out of the Irving Powerhouse showing the exiting water flowing south into the inlet of the Childs System. Looking south
AZ-65-G-10	View of the electrical panel at the Irving Powerhouse. Looking southeast
AZ-65-G-11	View of the exterior of Irving Powerhouse showing the main entrance on the west side, office building in the left foreground. Looking southeast
AZ-65-G-12	View of the exterior of Irving Powerhouse also showing the office building at right. Looking south-southeast.